

OUTLINE FOR PAPER

STUDENT NAME:

CLASS :

P#

Remember: Each sentence should have a clear origin: either your own words/thinking or a source which is cued with a signal phrase/intro and ended with a parenthetical credit to source, last name of author as it appears in Works Cited entry.

Paper Title:

1. Introduction: Situation (maybe from pt 2 of loop ex.)
 1. Then Thesis sentence UNDERLINED: A statement of topic and position (and main reasons)
2. Body Paragraph 1: Topic sentence goes here.
 1. Supporting evidence: A paraphrase or quote from one of your sources goes here, along with an in-text citation
 1. Explanation of the meaning of the supporting evidence.
 2. Cue source, specific evidence then evidence credit
 3. So what? A direct statement on how the supporting evidence does in fact support the claim made in the topic sentence.
3. Body Paragraph 2: Topic sentence goes here.
 1. Supporting evidence
 1. Explanation
 2. Cue source, specific evidence then evidence credit
 3. So what?
 2. Supporting evidence
 1. Explanation
 2. Cue source, specific evidence then evidence credit
 3. So what?
4. Body Paragraph 3: Topic sentence goes here.
 1. Supporting evidence
 1. Explanation
 2. Cue source, specific evidence then evidence credit
 3. So what?
5. Conclusion:
 1. restate topic and position
 2. restate findings from evidence
 3. suggest some overall So what?

Works Cited (ON NEW PAGE sources actually credited IN text of paper)

Alphabetically by author last name (or title of source, if no author)