

MLA: Citing Practice from a List of Sources

Name:

Class:

Term/Yr.

Instructions: Choose a Signal Phrase that fits how the source might be used, to support, challenge, or just acknowledge the source. Always use the first name/title that appears at the far left (first) of the bibliographical entry. A list of sources that may be USED and CITED should be available before actually starting to insert the cite/credit into the text of the paper.

All material from an outside source (incl. summary & paraphrase) MUST have a clear credit. Quoted material must also have the page (or ¶) number for where the material was found.

Please add () as needed to the possible citing examples below.
